Ooh ooh, I see my face and Mama's, Great Grand-daddy's, too,
Sturdy pine trees, and sunflowers, and Grandma Betty in blue –
There's Daddy in his rocking chair and bright stars up above,
And there's smoke from the chimney in a house filled with love... sweet love....

MY OLD FAMILY QUILT on the back of the chair
Has the pictures and the memories of the life we all share.
And we're all here together in a house that love has built
When I reach for the warmth of MY OLD FAMILY QUILT.

I see sunshine and showers, a man made of snow,
Wild horses, golden haystacks, and a man's best friend named Beau –
My sister's in her wedding dress, she's walking down the aisle,
My Mama rocks a cradle and my newborn baby smiles... the sweetest smile.... and

CHORUS

As Mama sewed these pictures I listened while she said,
"Someday you'll show your own child all the stories on her bed...."

And MY OLD FAMILY QUILT on the back of the chair
Has the pictures and the memories of the life we all share.
And we're all here together in a house that love has built
When I reach for the warmth of MY OLD FAMILY QUILT.
When I feel all the love in MY OLD FAMILY QUILT.
